Reports are received from multiple offices including the University of Missouri Police Department and the Department of Residential Life. Members of the community may also submit reports of misconduct through the Incident Reporting Form on our website.

OSAS will place a judicial hold on your account, preventing registration until the conduct process is complete.

You will receive a notice letter via email with information about the incident and how to schedule a meeting.

YES

Student schedules meeting via MUConnect.

Attend your scheduled meeting with OSAS.

Your initial meeting with OSAS gives you a chance to give your side of the story.

You may bring a person with you to advise you through the process. Your adviser cannot speak for you but can whisper or write notes to you.

NO

If you don't schedule a meeting within five business days of receiving your letter, OSAS will make a decision without your input.

Once a decision is made, you will receive a letter via email. Please follow the instructions in the letter.

IF FOUND RESPONSIBLE FOR VIOLATIONS OF THE STANDARD OF CONDUCT:

ACCEPT

Reply to OSAS within five business days.

Pay your judicial fee within two weeks or it will be assessed on your student account.

Complete your sanctions and submit them to OSAS by date in your decision letter. Overdue sanctions are subject to further charges.

OSAS will review and approve your sanctions, send you a confirmation email, and lift the judicial hold on your account.

REJECT

Reply to OSAS within five business days.

OSAS schedules a do-not-accept meeting with you to explain the formal hearing process.

OSAS schedules a hearing with the Chancellor's Committee on Student Conduct.

You will receive a Notice of Disciplinary Charges and Hearing letter via email and certified mail at your active address listed in MyZou.

The Hearing Panel follows the procedures described in the Collected Rules and Regulations 200.020 (3).

The Hearing Panel makes a decision and sends a decision letter to you via email and certified mail.

ACCEPT

Reply to OSAS within five business days.

Pay your judicial fee within two weeks or it will be assessed on your student account.

Complete your sanctions and submit them to OSAS by date in your decision letter. Overdue sanctions are subject to further charges.

OSAS will review and approve your sanctions, send you a confirmation email, and lift the judicial hold on your account.

APPEAL THE DECISION

You have the right to appeal or petition for review per the Collected Rules and Regulations 200.020.

To appeal, follow the instructions in your decision letter, detailing your reason for appeal in writing to the Dean of Students within the allotted time.

The Dean of Students will send you a letter regarding their decision on your appeal.

